Clinton Rogers

827 Rose Street
Klamath Falls, Oregon, 97601
clinton.rogers@oit.edu
408.990.6880

Summary:

Seasoned computer programmer and quality-assurance tester with over five years of experience, several products shipped, and a passion for building, breaking and fixing software.

Skills:

- Linux
- TRAC
- Redmine
- GTK
- Python
- Vala
- C#
- C
- Java

Experience:

The Yorba Foundation   February 2011 – May 2013

Title: Software Developer
- Authored an editing tool and multiple other features in the company's flagship product
- Gathered and responded to user feedback, and helped use it to generate design specifications
- Maintained large codebase against changing libraries and vendor requirements

Products shipped: Shotwell

Namco Networks of America, Inc.   March 2009 - January 2011

Title: Porting Engineer
- Ported games to new handsets using a variety of tools and technologies
- Made recommendations on future enhancements to build system

Products shipped: Inspector Gadget, Pac Man Bowling, Pac Man Pinball, Brain Exercise, Burger Time, Pac Man Championship Edition

LeapFrog, Inc.   October 2007 – December 2008

Title: QA Tools Programmer
- Designed, programmed and maintained multiple testing tools to aid the QA department in testing the company's newest handheld game console
- Programmed new features into the console's existing user interface to support localization

Products shipped: Didj

Education:

Currently pursuing a degree in computer systems engineering at Oregon Institute of Technology

References:

Submitted upon request